Conjoined twins ask Biharis to vote

To inspire voters, the EC has posted some inspirational stories on its social media platforms and one is the story of conjoined twin sisters Saba and Farah. Saba and Farah have their heads fused to each other since birth. EC has given postal ballot option for them to use their voting rights.

Not just the IPL, the Bihar election, too, have got its share of glitzy elements. Ahead of the third phase, cheerleaders from Mumbai are entertaining voters in Narkatiyaganj constituency of West Champaran near the Indo-Nepal border. A team of 8 girls and 2 boys have been invited by the supporters of BJP candidate Rashmi Verma. They were seen performing to a mix of songs. Kashmiri was elected to the assembly in 2010 but could not win in 2015. One of her close relatives, Vinay Verma, is her rival.

This is the first time cheer girls have been involved in campaigning in Bihar polls.

In Bhagalpur, the Congress campaign got a boost when Bollywood actress Neha Sharma flew from Mumbai to seek votes for her father and MLA Ajit Kumar Sharma, who faces BJP's Rohit Pandey.

NDA has invited three Bhojpuri stars - MP's Manoj Tiwari and Ravikishan and Dinesh Lal Nirhua. Not to be left behind, the Grand Alliance has roped in Bhojpuri film stars Anjana Singh, Akshara Singh, Khesari Lal Yadav, Chhotu Chhaliya, Surbhi Sharma, Pakhi Hegde. Veteran film actor Shatrughan Sinha is also campaigning for the Congress and RJD candidates.

LJP had invited Ameesha Patel who campaigned in Nalanda, the home district of CM Nitish Kumar.

Five die in terror attack in Vienna

The shooting began near Vienna's main synagogue as many people were enjoying a last night of open restaurants and bars before a month-long coronavirus lockdown, which started at midnight.

Unverified footage posted on social media showed a gunman walking through the streets, apparently shooting at people at random, wounding several. It was unclear whether the person seen shooting was the same individual in each video.

Nitish gets the onion treatment

Even the polling staff were not seen wearing masks or face covers. Also, lighting arrangements in the cabins where EVMs were installed was poor. In rural booths, too, social distancing was not maintained. None of the voters were supplied masks or sanitizers either, as had been mandated. Even the polling officers did not maintain the Covid protocol due to the space crunch in the small rooms of the schools, where the booths were located. Till 5 pm, 51.5 per cent polling was recorded in 94 constituencies.
